

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11

RESOLUTION CHAPTER 121

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 11—Relative to Tinloy Street.

[Filed with Secretary of State September 14, 2005.]

LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL'S DIGEST

SCR 11, Aanestad. Tinloy Street.

This measure would designate the State Highway Route 20/49 southwest bound frontage road in Grass Valley from the intersection of East Main Street and Idaho Maryland Road to its intersection with South Auburn Street as "Tinloy Street." The measure would request the Department of Transportation to determine the cost for appropriate signs showing this designation and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources covering that cost, to erect those signs.

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family has Chinese roots and its presence in Grass Valley dates back to the 19th century; and

WHEREAS, John Tinloy was born to Kan Tinloy who immigrated to Nevada County from the Canton Province in China during the Gold Rush in the 1880's and owned and operated a store offering Chinese traditional food and artifacts, and this store evolved into a social place, bank, and an employment bureau; and

WHEREAS, John Tinloy married Alice Chen Shee, and together they raised one daughter and three sons, and the family opened and operated a fine women's apparel store and a grocery store in Grass Valley; and

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family was active in the Methodist Church in Grass Valley; and

WHEREAS, The Tinloy family, stemming from the community activism of John Tinloy, has historically been very civic minded and contributed community service and philanthropic gifts to the community; and

WHEREAS, It is important that John Tinloy, in addition to his family, a family that has provided significant energy and time to the community, be honored; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Senate of the State of California, the Assembly thereof concurring, That the State Highway Route 20/49 southwest bound frontage road in Grass Valley from the intersection of East Main Street and Idaho Maryland Road to its intersection with South Auburn Street be officially designated "Tinloy Street;" and be it further

Resolved, That the Department of Transportation is requested to determine the cost of appropriate signs, consistent with the signing requirements for the state highway system, showing this special designation and, upon receiving donations from nonstate sources sufficient to cover the cost, to erect those signs; and be it further

Resolved, That the Secretary of the Senate transmit copies of this resolution to the Department of Transportation and the author for appropriate distribution.
